

MEDIA COVERAGE

PARM promotes agricultural risk management for smallholder farmers

On 13 February 2024, PARM played its knowledge broker role in promoting agricultural risk management and particularly, in raising the importance of assessing agricultural risks to de-risk investments and foster access to finance for smallholder farmers, during two international events: the FARM Foundation 2024 Conference, held in Paris, and the 8th Global Meeting of the Farmers' Forum, held in IFAD HQ.

PARM promotes agricultural risk management for smallholder farmers

PARM's Lead Technical Specialist, Massimo Giovanola, participated in the 8th Global Meeting of the Farmers Forum at IFAD Headquarters. He joined experts from IFAD, the National council for rural consultation and cooperation of Senegal and the Confederation of agricultural producers' associations for development of Burundi to discuss how to expand smallholders' access to finance and reflect on opportunities for a greater role of Farmers Organizations (FOs) in partnership with the private and financial sector".

PARM promotes agricultural risk management for smallholder farmers

On 13 February 2024, PARM played its knowledge broker role in promoting agricultural risk management [...]. Both events demonstrated that efforts must be continued to improve farmers' livelihoods and resilience, PARM will pursue its work in providing technical assistance, capacity development and knowledge management support while bringing forward agricultural risk management agenda at the global and regional levels.

PARM promotes agricultural risk management for smallholder farmers

On 13 February, Francesca Nugnes, PARM's Capacity Development and Private Sector Expert shared insights during the roundtable "the necessary conditions to deploy financing aligned to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)". She outlined the importance of a holistic approach to analysing agricultural risks, in line with the SDGs, and the need for inclusive risk management tools benefiting all stakeholders, particularly women and youth.

PARM promotes agricultural risk management for smallholder farmers

On 13 February 2024, PARM played its knowledge broker role in promoting agricultural risk management and particularly, in raising the importance of assessing agricultural risks to de-risk investments and foster access to finance for smallholder farmers, during two international events: the FARM Foundation 2024 Conference, held in Paris, and the 8th Global Meeting of the Farmers' Forum, held in IFAD HQ.